

Holt County Sentinel.

Oregon, Missouri.
FRIDAY MORNING, SEPT. 28, 1866.

COUNTY COURT adjourned on the 25th.

Single Numbers.
Single numbers of the SENTINEL neatly done up in wrappers, for the accommodation of persons desiring to send them to their friends abroad, can be had at this office at five cents per copy.

Religious Notice.
Rev. R. K. JONES (Universalist) will deliver a course of lectures on Human Destiny, commencing on Thursday eve., Oct. 4th 1866. All are invited to attend.

To Tax Payers.
An Advertisement of importance to all, appears in another column. It is under the head of "Tax Payers, Look out!" Let no one fail to read it, and profit thereby.

An Item of Interest.
HENRY STERNETT, at "Sterrett's Corner," is receiving his fall stock, amongst which we notice some nice goods for the ladies. Call soon if you wish first choice.

Job Printing.
We have recently made some important additions to our job department, which enables us to turn out job work with more facility, and in a manner more satisfactory to customers. We execute work of any character wanted, and at prices as low as any in the northwest.

Subscribers finding the above character before their names, are notified that their term of subscription has expired, that their failure to renew it immediately will be taken as evidence that they do not wish the paper longer, and that unless they renew their names will be dropped from the list.

The Registration.
The time fixed for registering has arrived. The sub-registers entered upon their duties on Saturday last, and will resume again to-morrow, and on each subsequent Saturday until the 20th of October. We apprehend no difficulty in the registration in this county. We feel assured that Capt. ALLEN will see that all have justice done them.

Foreign Advertisements.
We will in no instance accept advertisements at less than our published rates. All advertisements, except from parties of established reliability, and all advertisements for a less period than one year, to insure insertion, must be accompanied by the cash. Foreign advertisers and advertising agents will please take notice.

Premium Molasses.
We have a sample of molasses from Chinese sugar cane, produced by Mr. B. KING, of this county, which having tried, we pronounce decidedly the best we have ever tasted. Had we a county fair—and it is hoped we will next year—we feel sure Mr. KING would carry off the highest premium for sorghum molasses. Such an article, if offered for sale, would certainly command the highest price offered.

The Grasshoppers.
These insects reached Holt county last week. They are lively things whenever the sun shines, and if the weather should remain warm for a few days, will doubtless do our farmers great injury by eating up the fall wheat. It is estimated that there are ten bushels of the hoppers to the acre, besides the myriads in the atmosphere, which in the warmer portions of the day, give the town the appearance of an immense apiary. Upon looking towards the sun at noon, the glitter of their wings gives them the appearance of a shower of "falling stars."

Whom to Patronize.
If you wish to buy goods of any kind, glance over our advertising columns, find out who are liberal with the printer, and you can depend upon it, they are the men who will give you the best bargains. They are the men of this age, alive to the fact that the only plan upon which business can be conducted with success, is a liberal one. If goods decline after they have made purchases, they are not of the sort so blind to their interest as to keep them up. Patronize those who advertise liberally. They are never close-fisted men—depend upon it.

To-Night!

SPEAKING AT THE COURT HOUSE!

DISCUSSION OF A NATIONAL TOPIC!

In response to an invitation from the veteran soldiers of Oregon, A. O. LITCHFIELD, late Col. 7th Mich. Cav., will address the ladies and gentlemen of Oregon and vicinity, at the Court House, this evening, on "the Patriot's True Policy."

Let there be a rousing turnout.

Court Items.
IRVING SIBERT, for drunkenness and resistance of the civil authority, was before the Mayor on Friday last, and fined $15 and contingencies, in all about $20.

Mail Robberies.
The St. Joseph Herald of Thursday says:

The Deputy Post Master of this city yesterday proceeded to Savannah and arrested the driver of one of the coaches on the St. Joseph and Council Bluffs mail line, on the charge of robbing the mail. He brought him to this city and confined him in the jail to await transportation to Jefferson City. Being an offence against the regulations of the Post Master General's Department, the cause is only cognizable before the United States' Court, which sits for this District at Jefferson City. The man is accused of extracting many articles of value, including letters containing money directed to merchants in this city, and the officials are confident that he has been carrying on his pilferings for several months.

The following is the Radical ticket nominated in Platte:

Almost an Elopement.
Yesterday morning, at quite an early hour, the family of one of our citizens was thrown into a state of feverish excitement by the mater familia, who imagined she heard stealthy footsteps on the back stairs. The father of the family was awakened, and assured that the house was full of burglars and that the family would be murdered in less than a minute, unless something was done. The old gentleman hastily drew on his pants, lighted the coal oil lamp, seized the poker, and sallied forth in search of the robbers. What was his surprise, instead of finding the house full of desperadoes, to meet on the landing his good looking daughter of sweet sixteen, dressed in her Sunday best, with a band-box on one arm and a large valise pendant from the other. Father was, of course, in a justifiable rage; demanded to know of Sarah Jane what this meant, and what she was doing up and dressed at so unseasonable an hour. Just at this moment came a tap on the hall door, and a masculine voice in a suppressed tone sung out, "Hurry, darling, I'm waiting." Light began to break in on the enraged parent, and he transferred his attention to the street door. Daughter expostulated, begged him not to go out there or he would surely catch his death of cold, but he was unrelenting, and in a moment stood on the porch, confronting a six-footer with savage moustache and a full traveling rig. Pa of course stormed, ordered Sarah Jane back to bed, and, for that time at least, a runaway match was prevented.

The lover was last seen at one of our livery stables, settling for a two horse single seated carriage, which he swore had proved too wide for one and not wide enough for two. Sarah Jane last evening was looking quite disconsolate, and spoke of blighted affections and young hearts breaking for love. We have reason to believe, however, that she will recover.—[St. Joseph Union, 25th.]

DISTRICT School commences next Monday.

On Sunday last, Thos. A. Sloan, a veteran of the 18th Mo. Federal Cavalry was brutally murdered at Liberty, in Clay county Mo. It appears that on his return from the Federal service he was forced to leave his home in Clay county on account of his union sentiments and take refuge in Kansas City. Recently he returned, and last Sabbath attended church at Shady Grove, from the Church he was followed home by rebels and murdered almost within sight of his mother's house. Three balls entered his body and one rebel shot him as he lay dead on the ground, holding the pistol so close as to singe his hair. After the commission of the murder, the murderers returned to the church and publicly boasted of having committed the deed.—[St. Joseph Union.]

A SHARP HIT.—During the delivery of Mr. Moses Johnson's speech at the Kennard House, a Copperhead in the crowd observed that "no one could dispute that the President draws well." "Yes," responded an Irishman, "so would a monkey, if he was accompanied by an elephant and a lion."—[Cleveland Leader.]
